September Program

Many thanks to Cheryl Neiman for the wonderful workshop, it is always nice to learn a new technique and Cheryl sure made it easy to understand ‘the quilt as you go method’ and best of all quilting with friends is always funner.

August’s zoom lecture “you made a beautiful quilt-now what? It sure was a breath of fresh air, so many ideas and opportunities, to do so much more with our beautiful quilts.

INTRODUCTORY QUILT MAKING CLASS with Stephanie, Carla, Nancy & Maggie is well on its way, we had a great turnout, all the ladies are excited to learn & make their first quilt, their enthusiasm is contagious. Next class August 24 & 31. 2pm-5pm where: Boulders 1 Mobile Home Park Clubhouse.

Sept 12th Welcome Back Tea our theme is “SEWING”

We are requesting for all committee chairs to attend. We will serve iced tea, water and small sweets. Please wear a hat and bring a teacup with saucer and a few dollars to buy tickets for the centerpieces/baskets that will be raffled. If you like, you may also bring small cookies, cakes, or tarts to share. Wear a dress and/or gloves to get an extra door prize ticket. We ask that the friendship groups make centerpieces/baskets that will be raffled. Please do not spend a lot of money on these. We will have guild members say a few words about their jobs in the guild, and of course a hat parade and prizes.

Sept 14th All guild sew-in, BYOP. when 1:30PM-5:30PM where: Quartz Hill Library. “Quilting with a friend will keep you in stitches.”

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello all!

It was great to see so many of you last month. The ice cream was a welcome treat. Thank you, Maggie, for doing it. Next month we will have a speaker on zoom only; we will not have a meeting or board meeting.

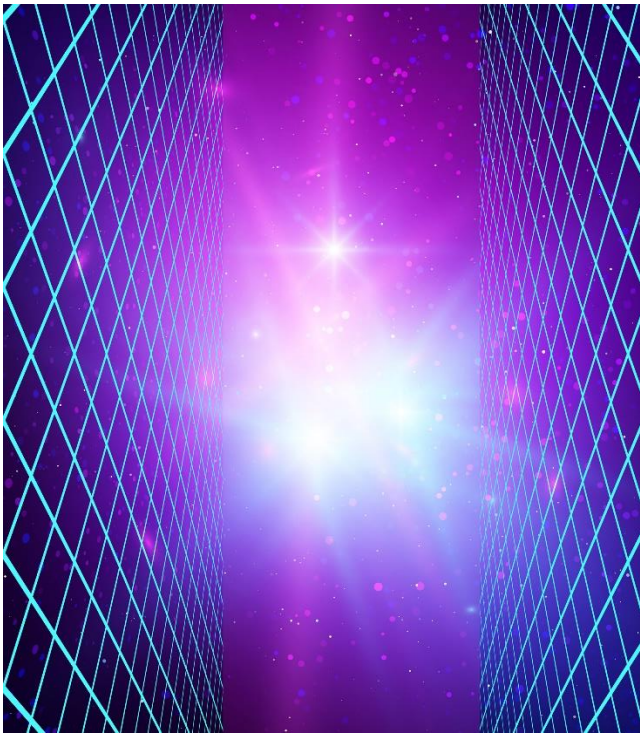

Last month we voted to have a Quilt show next May, so I ask everyone to please consider volunteering for a task. Maybe you have time to hunt down vendors or maybe gather donations for the boutique? Don't be shy. If we all take a small part, the Quilt show will be a great success!!

To all our quilters traveling this month for the quilt retreat, enjoy the company, cool weather and getting UFOs completed :)

See you in September for the tea and the drawing of the winner of our opportunity quilt. Stay cool and see you on zoom!!

Pat
